

OLD BLUES DAY AT CHRIST'S HOSPITAL MUSEUM SATURDAY 18 MAY 2019 10.00 - 16.00

Explore Christ's Hospital's past!

With over 465 years of history reflected in some 100,000 artefacts and extensive displays, where better than at the Museum to discover your own recent CH history, as well as further back in time?

New for this year, a current pupil has helped us revive the old CH Model Railway Club trains – watch them in action!

Enjoy our 2019 exhibition Brangwyn's Cartoons at Christ's Hospital, all about the story of the murals in Chapel and the designer, craftsman who created them along with seven recently conserved sketches.

Where else can you see a manuscript signed by Samuel Pepys, an original poem by Samuel Taylor Coleridge, and a piece of fuselage from Barnes Wallis' Wellington Bomber?

Reminisce about the CH Horsham and Hertford era through scrapbooks, photos, copies of the Blue, house lists and original film footage of St. Matthew's Day marching pupils from our recent Museum of London Bluecoats in the City exhibition.

See a new display devoted to Hertford, attempt to pass the 1899 entrance exam sitting at an original desk and visit our Museum Shop, selling unique CH souvenir memorabilia such as Housey magnets, new publications, postcards and CH novelties!
